

A multicultural society with an array of religions and cultures requires a wide-ranging understanding of the expectations of death and funerals.

We are therefore delighted to invite you to our 2015 Educational Seminar:

‘Death and Funerals in different religions and cultures in the UK’

The event will be held on Tuesday 14th July 2015, 10.00 am – 4.00pm at the National Memorial Arboretum, Croxall Road, Alrewas, Staffordshire, DE13 7AR

Who is talking?

Mohammed Omer, Trustee at the Gardens Of Peace Cemetery in Hainault, East London and The Revd. Dr Sandra Millar, Head of Projects and Developments, Archbishops’ Council at the Church of England.

Further speakers to be confirmed

Who is this event for?

Any professional working with families who have lost a child, including: funeral directors, crematorium staff, nurses, hospital bereavement officers, bereavement counsellors, charity staff, registrars, celebrants, faith representatives, hospice staff, bereavement midwives and many other groups.

If you haven’t been to the Arboretum before then take this opportunity to visit!
