Crucial Conversations

(Managing Difficult People)

Having the courage to consistently do the right thing sometimes means having to deal with or confront people and situations which may prove challenging. This workshop has been designed to help you understand why many people ignore things at their peril, to spot the early warning signs of trouble and to give you the skills you need to deal promptly and effectively with each situation as it arises. It will also help you understand your personal triggers to conflict and your preferred operating style.

Suitable for: Managers, Team Leaders and Supervisors who deal with difficult and angry people

Course overview:
Common triggers to anger and challenging situations
How to hold people to account
Ways to get your message across the way you intended first time
How to stop taking things personally and avoiding arguments
Strategies to deal with put downs
How to deal with resistance in others

Attendance, including lunch and refreshments:
£125.00 plus VAT for ICCM members
£175.00 plus VAT for non-members

An ICCM/Heartled Wellbeing quality management training event
Part of a new suite of management training courses for bereavement services
One-day workshop
Learn new skills
