

ICCM Photographic Competition 2019

Would you like a photograph taken by you to appear on the front cover of The Journal?

If you have a photograph taken in a cemetery, crematorium, churchyard or natural burial ground you can enter it into the ICCM Photographic Competition 2019 for a chance to win the prestige of having it reproduced on the front cover of the Journal. The winner will also receive a £50.00 gift voucher. The Board of Directors will choose a winning entry. A selection of the images submitted will be shown at the ICCM Awards Ceremony during the Learning Convention and Exhibition, and the prize will be presented there.

The image must not identify any individuals and must have been taken by the person submitting it.

To enter please email a maximum of TWO unique, generic images to Julie Dunk at julie.dunk@iccm-uk.com in HIGH RESOLUTION jpeg format. Colour images will be converted to black and white for judging. The judges' decisions will be final.

The closing date for entries is 30 June 2019

Copyright of all images submitted remains with the ICCM who reserve the right to use them without further compensation, restriction on use, attribution or liability.
