ICCM South Eastern Branch Meeting Wednesday 17th October 2018
at Golders Green Crematorium

An invitation on behalf of Sofia Allana, ICCM Deputy President and SE Branch Chairman (pictured).

The next SE Branch Meeting will take place on Wednesday 17th October, 2018 at Golders Green Crematorium, 62 Hoop Lane, Golders Green, NW11 7NL

Golders Green Crematorium, established by the London Cremation Society, was opened in 1902 by Sir Henry Thompson, president of the Cremation Society of England and is one of the oldest in Britain. Prior to 1902, Londoners wishing to be cremated had used the Woking Crematorium, opened in 1885. Golders Green was planned to be within easy driving distance of central London and it rapidly became the most important crematorium in England.

The crematorium is set within 12 acres of beautiful gardens and is the final resting place for many talented and notable people including Sigmund Freud, Bram Stoker, the writer who created Dracula, Marc Bolan the lead singer of T Rex whose plaque sits alongside Keith Moon, ex drummer of The Who.

Viv Lackey, London Area Manager will give an introductory talk. This will be followed by a presentation from Karon Buxton from the Columbaria Company and then a tour of the crematorium grounds.
