South Eastern Branch Meeting – Thursday 3rd November 2011

On Behalf of the Chairman of the South Eastern Branch, Kevin Pilkington, Neil and Alan Jeffries (Directors of Wesley Music), I write to invite you to the next meeting of the South Eastern Branch. It will take place on Thursday 3rd November 2011 at Wesley Music <http://www.wesleymusic.co.uk/> . The meeting will be held at the nearby pub. Members will be given a guided tour of the Wesley Music Offices and we will be shown how it operates.

Established in the mid 1990's, Wesley Music was set up to provide a highly specialised music service to the bereavement community. Using the resources of its mother company - The Yahoo Company Limited, a company of professional musicians, recording engineers and production managers, each having considerable experience in the music business (through ventures ranging from the recording of Gregorian chant to the promotion of pop and rock concerts) - Wesley Music provides a unique library of recordings specifically for use in crematoria.

From the very beginning the company made it its business to provide clients with exactly what they wanted, and to continue this on an on-going basis. The result has been a continuous development of its services culminating in the on-line computer-controlled music system provided today.

They have extensive knowledge of and access to all types of recorded music, and are a one-stop music solution to their clients - "if it's available, we'll provide it"!

Our guest speaker at the meeting will be Dr Matthew Engelke, a senior lecturer in the Department of Anthropology at the London School of Economics. His expertise is religion and ritual and he is currently conducting a year-long research project on the British Humanist Association and the funeral services they conduct.

On this occasion there are limited spaces and therefore space will be allotted to Members on a first come first served basis. If you would like a non member to attend you can let me know, and if there is space available they are more than welcome. I would be so grateful if you could let me know if you can attend or not. You can do so by emailing be at natasha@mortlakecrematorium.org or by phoning 020 8392 6984.

Please let me know by Monday 24th October 2011 and I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours Sincerely
