Form A2: Application for cremation of a stillborn baby

Crematorium/cremation authority

BABY’S NAME ___________________________________________________________

This form must be used to apply for a cremation of a stillborn baby. This is a requirement of the Cremation (Scotland) Regulations 2017, made under section 48 of the Burial and Cremation (Scotland) Act 2016. A stillborn baby is a baby who was born or delivered after 24 weeks gestation without showing any signs of life.

The application is made to the cremation authority you want to carry out the cremation. The cremation authority is the organisation responsible for running the crematorium where the cremation is to take place. The cremation authority will need to check the form to make sure it contains all of the necessary information. Missing information or information that is not accurate may result in the cremation being delayed or refused.

As the person who is applying for the cremation, you are ‘the applicant’. You must have the legal right to apply for the cremation (see guidance notes at the back of this form).

If you are unsure about any of the information that is required, or are not sure what any part of the form means, you should speak to staff at the crematorium, to the funeral director who is making the arrangements or to any other person who is arranging the funeral.

Guidance notes are provided at Section 6 of this form.

Change of crematorium

If it is necessary to change the crematorium for any reason a new Form A1 should be completed.

Forms checklist

You should ensure that you have attached any necessary documents to this application form. The cremation authority will need to have them to allow the cremation to take place.

Personal details of individuals contained in this form are not to be used for any other purpose.

The information on this form will be processed in line with the Data Protection Act 1998. The data will be held securely, in confidence and processed for the purpose of carrying out the cremation. Under the Act you have the right to know what data is held about you and you can, by applying to the cremation authority in writing and paying a fee, receive a copy of that data.

Form A2 – cremation – stillborn baby
Section 6: Guidance Notes:

The applicant should complete sections 1 – 5.

1. Section 1

   I. A stillborn baby is a baby who was born or delivered after 24 weeks gestation without showing any signs of life.

   II. The nearest relative is entitled to make the arrangements. The hierarchy below sets out the nearest relative who is entitled to make the arrangements (section 74 of the 2016 Act). Where the nearest relative on the hierarchy is unable to make the arrangements for any reason the application can be made by the nearest relative who appears below them on the hierarchy:
   - Parent;
   - Brother or sister;
   - Grandparent;
   - Aunt or uncle;
   - Cousin; or
   - Niece or nephew.

2. Section 2

   I. Procurator Fiscal –
      All deaths which are sudden and/or unexplained are reported to the procurator fiscal who will instruct the police to investigate the circumstances of the death. Within the Crown Office and Procurator Fiscal (COPFS), the Scottish Fatalities Investigation Unit (SFIU) is a specialist unit responsible for investigating all sudden, suspicious, accidental and unexplained deaths. Information is available for relatives on the COPFS website: http://www.copfs.gov.uk/investigating-deaths/our-role-in-investigating-deaths

3. Section 3

   I. Not all cremation authorities offer the same services – for example, some will scatter ashes while others will bury them. If you are in any doubt about the options, you should discuss them with the cremation authority or with the funeral director who is arranging the funeral. This will ensure that it is possible for the cremation authority to carry out your instructions. Once the cremation authority has accepted this application form, it must follow your instructions for what is to be done with the ashes.

   II. Further information about the options at section 3 are detailed here:

      A. I or my representative will collect the ashes from the crematorium.

         The person collecting the ashes will need to bring identification with them. If you do not collect the ashes from the crematorium within 4 weeks of them being made available, the cremation authority will try to contact you to find out what you want done with the ashes. At this time you may inform them that you still intend to collect the ashes and must agree a new collection date. You may also instruct the cremation authority to bury or scatter the ashes (if they offer this service).

         If you do not respond or do not tell the cremation authority what your instructions are, the cremation authority may scatter or bury the ashes in a manner they are able to offer. If this is done, the cremation authority will record what is done with the ashes in its cremation register.

      B. I authorise the funeral director who arranged the funeral to collect the ashes on my behalf.

         If you do not collect the ashes from the funeral director within 4 weeks of them being made available, the funeral director will try to contact you to find out what your instructions are for the ashes. At that point, you may inform the funeral director that you still intend to collect the ashes and must agree a new collection date.

         You may also instruct the funeral director to return the ashes to the crematorium so that you can collect them there or so that the cremation authority may scatter or bury them.
If you do not respond or do not inform the funeral director what your instructions are, the funeral director may return the ashes to the crematorium. The cremation authority will try to contact you to find out what you want to done with the ashes. At this time you may inform them that you still intend to collect the ashes and must agree a new collection date. You may also instruct the cremation authority to bury or scatter the ashes (if they offer this service). If you do not collect the ashes, they may then be scattered or buried by the crematorium.

C. I instruct the cremation authority to bury or scatter the ashes (whichever option is offered).

The cremation authority will bury or scatter the ashes. This is usually done in the Garden of Remembrance, although each cremation authority will have a different procedure. The cremation authority will be able to tell you which options it offers. The cremation authority will record what is done with the ashes in the cremation register.

4. Section 4

I. Hazards
   Notifiable diseases are listed in Schedule 1 of the Public Health etc. (Scotland) Act 2008.

5. Section 5

I. The applicant is required to declare that they are entitled to apply for the cremation in terms of the Burial and Cremation (Scotland) Act 2016.
II. The funeral director is required to complete the second part of section 5.

6. Section 6

I. The cremation authority is required to verify that the information contained in this form is correct and that the cremation can proceed.
II. The signatory should sign the form if they approve the cremation.
III. The counter signatory should sign the form to indicate that they are happy that the information is correct and that the cremation can go ahead.
