

Don't miss this important
FREE event

Put your best foot forward with the BCET CARBON FOOTPRINT SCHEME

The Burial and Cremation Education Trust invite you to the complimentary launch of their Carbon Footprint Scheme at The National Railway Museum, York on 20th July 2010

FINAL PROGRAMME

12.30pm	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Enjoy the hospitality extended by the Trust at a delicious buffet.
1.30pm	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Welcome and introduction by Brian Stott, Chairman of the Burial and Cremation Education Trust.
1.45pm	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Keynote speaker Ken West, MBE will present the scheme which will help authorities meet environmental commitments in addition to reducing costs..
2.15pm	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ian Hatton, B.SC. (Hons) Chief Executive Officer of North American Offshore Wind Company speaks on 'Energy and Climate Change'.
2.45pm	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Charles Howlett offers his practical experience on how the scheme concept works.
3.15pm	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Close with an opportunity to ask questions, register for the scheme and enjoy the museum, which you can tour before the event if you wish - also at no cost.

Can you afford to miss out on the opportunity to:

- Reduce your carbon footprint?
- Reduce costs?
- Benchmark your performance against other authorities?

Suppliers committed to the principle will be exhibiting products and equipment.

It's not too late to BOOK

Apply now to Nicky Burt via email flrt@laughtonsfarm.co.uk or telephone 01400-251332 or complete your details below and mail to Laughtons Farm, Hougham, Grantham, Lincolnshire, NG32 2AG

Name.....Authority.....

Email addressContact number.....