EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

Section 7 of the Cremation Act, 1902, empowered the Secretary of State to make regulations prescribing, amongst other things, the form of the declarations to be made before cremation may take place, and requiring such declarations to be made under and by virtue of the Statutory Declarations Act, 1835; and the Regulations of 1935 so provided. By section 2 of the Cremation Act, 1952, the words relating to statutory declarations are repealed, and provision is made (by amendment of the 1902 Act) for every application for cremation to be verified in such manner as the Secretary of State may prescribe. These Regulations amend the Regulations of 1935 accordingly, and require an application for cremation to be countersigned by a person of one of the capacities set out in the new regulation 7 (3). Regulation 4 makes provision in respect of applications in the case of a person who has died furth of Scotland.
