Thanks a million - To everyone at ICCM

Dear Trevor

Thank you so much for your kind and generous donation of £10762.78 to Macmillan Cancer Support. Because of supporters like you, we can continue to improve the lives of people affected by cancer and their families.

When you're living with cancer, the difference between a good day and a bad day can often come down to really small things. Getting answers on something you're worrying about. Finding out you can get some financial support. Or just having a chat with someone who understands. Everyday Macmillan helps thousands of people to have a good day.

Your donation will help fund more Macmillan health and social care professionals. It will help us provide information and emotional support through our phone line specialists, as well as our booklets and information centres. It will also help us fund Macmillan's website which last year helped over 3 million people in the UK.

We wouldn't be able to do this without your help. Please accept our warmest thanks for your valuable support.

Best wishes
