

ICCM GUIDING PRINCIPLES FRAMED COPIES

The ICCM Guiding Principles for Burial and Cremation are now available in a professionally printed format for display in your reception / waiting room. The document will give the bereaved and visitors a clear indication of the ethical, social and environmental standards that your authority or company strives to operate under.

The text of the Principles can be viewed on the Institute's website and is contained within the Charter for the Bereaved. Irrespective of whether you operate cemeteries or crematoria or both the Guiding Principles will make a clear statement about your service and the staff that deliver it.

Framed copy - £50 + VAT
 Un-framed copy £35 + VAT
 (The above are inclusive of post & packing)

An amplification of the Guiding Principles will be prepared in the coming months in order to provide further assistance and information. This document will be in the form of a free download that can be used to compile your own corporate leaflet for the public.
