NOTES:

1. Companies, firms, partnerships, parish councils, district councils, unitary councils and other local authorities and bodies may be admitted to corporate membership of the Institute where they are engaged in the provision of products and services relating to burial cremation or similar undertakings connected with the disposal of the dead or a public service ancillary to the same.
2. Corporate members are required to appoint an "Executive Representative" to act on behalf of the Member at general meetings and in relation to all other rights of membership of the Institute.
3. Corporate members may also appoint a Deputy who may act in the absence of the nominated representative. The nominated Deputy may attend general meetings in the absence of the Executive Representative but may not attend at the Board of Directors or the Corporate Committee where the Executive Representative has been appointed to either or both of those bodies.
4. Any change to the nominated Executive Representative or deputy should be notified immediately to the Chief Executive and Company Secretary of the ICCM at its registered office.
5. In accepting corporate membership of the Institute it is acknowledged that actions and conduct of the employees of the corporate member and, in particular, their nominated representative, shall be deemed to be those of the corporate member and may, in the case of inappropriate behaviour or conduct, render the corporate member liable to disciplinary action by the Institute.
6. Correspondence will be addressed to the Executive Representative unless otherwise notified.

Additional notes for Unitary Authority / District Council / London Borough or a Burial and Cremation Company

As a Unitary Authority / District Council / London Borough or a Burial and Cremation Company - your subscription fee includes 2 professional associate subscriptions to ICCM. Your organisation may already have a number of professional members; if this is the case you may be able to make a cost saving for your organisation.

Each professional member will receive a copy of the ICCM Journal, membership newsletters and information. In addition they will be able to undertake education modules from the Institute and study towards the ICCM diploma. Your contacts and your organisation will also still be able to receive advice from our expanded team of Officers.

Your identified primary and secondary contacts are likely to be your most appropriate professional members

To enable your organisation to benefit from this policy please also complete 2 copies of the APPLICATION FOR ASSOCIATE PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIP OF THE ICCM Form. This is also available via the ICCM website. However if you have any difficulties obtaining this or have other queries then please contact the ICCM National Office for further guidance.
