

article of the year 2011

The editor is delighted to receive copy for publication in The Journal either from members of the ICCM, or from others made aware of 'TJ' thanks to members suggesting they write an article which they think may be of interest to readers. Each year a selection of these original articles are considered for the coveted title of 'Article of the Year' – but there can only be one winner. Those shortlisted for the award are shown below and the 2011 title goes to 'Story of Colchester Cemetery's First Burial'. Congratulations to author Penny Stynes and to the other nominees, Lori Streich & Felicia Smith, Julie Hind, Roddy McGinley, Bob Langford and Iain Donald.

Penny Stynes

Story of Colchester Cemetery's First Burial

Autumn 2011 (Vol.79 No. 3)

Lori Streich & Felicia Smith

Resurrection of Arnos Vale

Spring 2011 (Vol.79 No. 1)

Julie Hind

Celebration of Life at Portchester 9 Memorial Garden

Summer 2011 (Vol.79 No. 2)

Roddy McGinley

Restoration Project - Tring Cemetery Chapel

Summer 2011 (Vol.79 No. 2)

Bob Langford

Four Seasons - Winter Cheer

Winter 2011 (Vol.79 No.4)

Iain Donald

Isle of Wight's 50th Anniversary

Winter 2011 (Vol.79 No. 4)

For your chance to win the 2012 prize of £100 please submit original copy to the editor at rncoates@aol.com or call 01722 710 801 if you'd like to discuss an article. Copy deadline dates on page 1.