

When Life Changes

Grief is a deeply personal journey; no two experiences are the same. Dr. Bill Webster BEM, internationally renowned grief counsellor, author and speaker, understands this not just professionally, but through his own personal losses.

This September, join us at GreenAcres Living Memorial Parks for a series of free, in-person seminars.

Dr. Webster will share compassionate insights and practical guidance drawn from decades of experience supporting others through loss.

Designed especially for professionals, this seminar offers practical tools and deeper insights on supporting others through grief, with a focus on the vital role of ceremony and remembrance in the healing process.

- Hear directly from one of the sector's leading voices in grief support
- Enhance your personal or professional understanding of grief from both clinical and lived perspectives
- Connect with GreenAcres teams and explore our unique Park experiences
- Network with professionals across the bereavement sector and our sister companies

Grief is not a sign of weakness, but a sign that you cared.”
